

Concept attainment

Students are given a list/table of words from all three tiers, including subject metalanguage, analytic verbs, concrete and abstract nouns.

Assessment	Pedagogy	Explicit	Demonstrate	Implied	Vocabulary
Glossary	Curriculum	Audit	Teach	Word	Explain
Define	Specific	Engage	Curiosity	Empower	Tier 2 words

Students use different coloured highlighters to categorise the words

- Basic – give them the categories (metalanguage, analytic verbs, concrete nouns, abstract nouns, descriptive words)
- Advanced – have students work together to define and describe the categories.

A follow-up task involves students using the same colours to highlight those word classes in their own writing (multiple exposures).

In The Crucible, ~~many~~ characters' past actions have influenced their ~~own~~ position whether or not they are guilty or not guilty in the witch trials. Elizabeth Proctor's feelings toward Abigail Williams ~~affected~~ swayed how Abigail was treated ~~in the~~ throughout the trials. ~~Also~~ Additionally, Elizabeth's reservations about her husband's actions with the affair. Miller ~~portrayed~~ ^{the effects of} ~~portrayed~~ people who are already in hot water and how their ~~bad~~ ^{poor} actions lead to ~~bad~~ ^{better word?} consequences. To Elizabeth, convicting Abigail of being a witch isn't for any other reason than to get revenge on her for the affair. ~~The Crucible also highlights the mistreatment of women.~~ Both texts highlight the effects of the mistreatment of women. Therefore women wanted to get back at the men that wronged them. Ham writes about how Tilly felt almost traumatised about how she was treated by the young boys in Dunstable. Similarly in The Crucible, Elizabeth was so hurt in the fact that her husband cheated that she longed to get back at the girl he cheated with and then ~~hate~~ him.
